"This is the first time the data from a real-life match has been used to power our official game engine," said Anthony Di Cesare, FIFA Technical Director. "This technology is built from the ground-up with our game developers, and we worked with leading motion capture facilities, as well as FIFA's world-class simulator. It is the key area of our game that will give us the feedback to make further improvements to the game when we launch in the summer." FIFA 16 introduced new visuals for players, stadiums, environments and clubs to make them all look more authentic. FIFA 17's authentic player models, new animation and improvements to camera positioning and player interactions were a big part of that. FIFA 17's on-pitch animations also made new types of gameplay possible, like blocking and tackling, space control and effective possession. FIFA 22 will feature an all-new game engine that allows gameplay changes to happen in real-time, adds more detailed textures to the player models and stadiums, and has physics and AI that are more responsive. World Cup Challenges mode: FIFA World Cup, the highlight of football season, is also returning in FIFA 22. Players will be able to participate in five unique challenges that all focus on reproducing the unpredictable nature of the event. Post-match content: Beginning the World Cup Final countdown FIFA World Cup will be a feature of FIFA 22 that will enable you to participate in the countdown to the Final of the FIFA World Cup. FIFA World Cup Final Countdown gives you the chance to relive the moments of the FIFA World Cup Final that just occurred. You can also create your own unique video commentary and share it with the rest of the world. Play as a National Team: Following the launch of the FIFA World Cup 2018 on 14 June 2018, FIFA will be adding 12 national teams to create a new-and-improved version of The Journey. Introducing the FIFA Women's World Cup FIFA will be further enhancing The Journey by introducing the FIFA Women's World Cup. The FIFA Women's World Cup will make its first appearance in FIFA 22. You can customize your player and enter 12 different cities all around the world as they participate in the tournament. The FIFA Women's World Cup will be added to the Season Pass at the time of launch. The Journey North America: The countdown to the FIFA Women's
